

About the Instructor – Mike Klawitter

Bio: March 2008

Degrees

- M.B.A. - University of Montana
- B.S. - University of Montana
- A.A.S. in Risk Management

Experience

23+ years of Public Entity Risk Management experience. Currently, Mike is the Director of Risk Management with the Anchorage School District, overseeing risk and safety related issues for 48,000+ students and 6,500+ staff covering 100+ building sites.

Areas of Expertise

Risk and safety-related topics.

University, Professional, Public Service

Mike is one of the Anchorage School District's representatives at the Municipality of Anchorage's Emergency Operations Center.

Professional Affiliations

Mike serves on the Board of Directors of the Denali Safety Council.

Scholarship/Creative Activity

During his off time, Mike is a 20+-years Dive Rescue Volunteer in Alaska, enjoys flying, fishing, boating, hunting, and exploring the back country.

Honors, Awards, Certificates, Licenses