P09.01.020. Student Defined.

A. Except as specified elsewhere in regents’ policy, university regulation, or university rules and procedures, a student is an individual for whom the university maintains an educational record and who meets one or more of the following criteria:

1. is enrolled in a course offered by the university;
2. is on an approved national or international student exchange or study abroad program, internship, or other program of study; or

B. Unless otherwise stipulated in regents’ policy or university regulation, a full-time undergraduate student is one who is enrolled for at least 12 credits and a full-time graduate student is one enrolled for at least 9 credits. A half-time undergraduate student is one enrolled for at least 6 credits, and a half-time graduate student is one enrolled for at least 5 credits. Full- and part-time designations are used in part to determine financial aid and other program eligibility, but completion of at least 30 credits per year is necessary for on-time degree completion.

C. In order to graduate from the university in four years with a bachelor’s degree or in two years with an associate degree a student needs to complete at least 30 credits per academic year.
