

Last Updated: December 2006

I.2 Confidentiality Policy

Information about Donors - Personal or financial information held by the Foundation which is given in confidence by, or collected by the Foundation staff about donors or prospective donors will not be released to the public except to the extent required by law. Requests for such releases are to be referred to the Foundation President, Mary Rutherford.

Information About Gifts - The University of Alaska Foundation will publish in its annual report on giving the names and broad giving levels (e.g. $1,000 to $4,999, $5,000 to $9,999) of donors who have made contributions to UA during the previous reporting period provided that the donor has not asked to remain anonymous. The University may release additional, more specific information about such gifts and their uses, as well as their donors, in order to focus positive attention on a University or Foundation program or project or in order to gain support for the University's teaching, research, or public service activities.

Information About Finances - Information regarding the finances of the Foundation will be made public in accordance with applicable portions of IRC 6104(e), 5562(c)(1)(C) and (D) and 6685. The Foundation's annual audited financial statement will be published in the annual report.