University of Alaska
Employee e-learning / UA Specific Courses

Titles include:

- Respectful Workplace
  Audience: All UA employees approximate length: 60 minutes

  This course is designed to provide UA employees with the knowledge of their basic rights and responsibilities under key state and federal Equal Employment Opportunity laws. This course also includes how to recognize characteristics of inappropriate behavior and their choices in dealing with inappropriate behavior.

  Designed/Produced by UAA eMedia in collaboration with SWOHR Labor Relations, EEO & Diversity offices and various others within UA.

  Course Completion Form – send completed form to your regional Human Resources office