Strategic Pathways 2016-2025

WORKING DRAFT: 16 February 2016
Strategic Pathways 2016-2025

Why Strategic Pathways?

The purpose of the University of Alaska is to serve the wide variety of education needs in our state. Alaska depends on us to meet those needs through our research and creative activities, teaching and learning, outreach and services to the public. We have a done a great job over the years in performing to our purpose, but there remain many large gaps that require our focused attention. There are also several major opportunities that must be pursued.

Now, more than ever, as our budget is reduced we must find ways to serve our important purpose as cost effectively as possible. Strategic Pathways is the framework we will use to improve our service to the state. It is based on the simple fact that each of our universities has unique strengths in meeting the state’s needs. While strategic pathways focuses on academic programs, administrative functions are also being reviewed to streamline processes and improve services while reducing costs.

Strategic Pathways envisions a University of Alaska where we reallocate resources from programs that are (1) not core to each university’s strengths in meeting state needs; (2) challenged by low enrollment, high cost, or insufficient faculty resources; or (3) redundant with programs at our other universities. Resources will be reallocated to those programs that are tied to each university’s unique distinctive strengths. In many cases, through technologies and arrangements across the UA system, these excellent programs will be made accessible to all Alaskans, and at a lower overall cost.

Strategic Pathways will be implemented in 3 phases, with Phase 1 beginning this spring and Phase 3 completed by 2019. Faculty, staff, and students will have extensive opportunities to participate in the process and the university community will be informed of progress on a regular basis. There are many issues that we will need to better understand and address as we proceed to make progress on this complex and important initiative.

Lead University Options

These options could be available on a program by program basis based on such factors as mission centrality, cost effectiveness, quality, and access. Distance learning can play a role in all options as will the development of a common catalog.
