P02.09.010. Public Safety Department; University of Alaska Police.

A. There is hereby established the University of Alaska Department of Public Safety, which shall be known as the University of Alaska Police Department. Pursuant to AS 14.40.043, the department shall enforce state and local laws in connection with offenses committed on the property of the university. In this section, "department" means the University of Alaska Police Department.

B. The department shall have units located on the University of Alaska Anchorage campus, the University of Alaska Fairbanks campus, and at such other university sites as the president may designate.

C. The department may be comprised of commissioned and noncommissioned personnel. Only personnel ~~certified by~~eligible under Alaska Statutes and regulations of the Alaska Police Standards Council ("APSC") and commissioned by the president may ~~be appointed to~~hold the positions of university public safety officer or university police officer and exercise police authority. For purposes of this subsection, "personnel ~~certified by~~eligible under Alaska Statutes and regulations of the Alaska Police Standards Council" includes persons who:

1. are eligible for, have applied for, and are awaiting notification of APSC certification;
2. have received prior APSC certification that has not been revoked; ~~or~~
3. are exempt from certification under AS 18.65.280; or
4. are eligible for probationary employment under Alaska Statutes and regulations of the APSC. Unless their employment is earlier terminated, the probationary period for such probationary officers will be at least six months, but no more than allowed by Alaska Statutes and APSC regulations. If required by APSC regulations for any reason, such as failure to obtain a basic certificate by the applicable deadline, the officer's employment will end. This section on probationary police officer employment supercedes any conflicting general employment provisions of Regents Policy or University Regulation.

D. The department shall operate in accordance with university regulation.
