Title IX General Updates	Advocacy: UAF contracts with the Interior Alaska Center for Non-Violent Living to offer victim advocacy resources and services 24/7 specifically for complainants. Resources will be provided to respondents when applicable. The ASUAF Student Advocate is available to both complainants and respondents for assistance with the Title IX process and resource information. UAF is currently working throughout spring 2021 to enhance and expand the advocacy resources available to students. Rights: Complainants are provided rights and resources at the time a report is made and again at the time an investigation occurs. Respondents are provided rights and resources at the time an investigation or informal resolution process begins. Legal Resources: UAF Student Government (ASUAF) contracts with a law firm to offer students 30-minute legal consultations. Employee Assistance Program offers employees a 30-minute consultation with an attorney. Counseling: Utilized by both complainants and respondents, the Student Health and Counseling Center or Employee Assistance Program are offered, depending on the parties’ affiliation. Website: The UAF Department of Equity and Compliance website has been updated for compliance with the new Federal rules: https://www.uaf.edu/equity/ Rights Notification: All UAF students and employees received a rights notification on September 14, 2020. Community & Campus Engagement	The UAF Department of Equity and Compliance works closely with Center for Student Rights and Responsibilities (CSRR), Residence Life, UA Human Resources (UA HR) as well as many other departments at UAF. Bi-weekly meetings are held with the Vice Chancellor for Student Affairs, the Provost, CSRR and UA HR. Monthly meetings are held with Residence Life, UAF Police Chief, Interior Alaska Center for Non-Violent Living, and Fairbanks Prevention Coalition. Collaboration with the Cooperative Extension Service on Civil Rights Compliance. There has been extensive discussion and action to train volunteers in the 4-H and Master Gardener Programs on Title IX and Protection of Minors. The UAF Strategic Plan on Inclusive Excellence (https://www.uaf.edu/diversity/) is in its year one of project execution. Individuals participating are from the following departments and community partners; Admissions, Alaska Native Studies and Rural Development, Alumni Relations, Athletics, Biomedical Learning and Student Training Program, College of Engineering and Mines, College of Fisheries and Ocean Sciences, College of Liberal Arts, Foundation, eCampus, Geophysical Institute, governance groups, Graduate School, Grants and Contracts Administration, Nanook Diversity and Action Center, Northwest Campus, Office of Information Technology, School of Education, Student Support Services, UA Human Resources, UAF Police Department, University Relations, Student Affairs, Water and Environmental Research Center, students: undergraduate and graduate, Blossom House, advocate for individuals with disabilities, Fairbanks Diversity Council, First Alaskans Institute, and Interior Alaska Center for Non-Violent Living. Director/ Title IX Coordinator of Equity and Compliance is a collaborator on two UAF faculty proposals addressing wellness and education disparities. Director/ Title IX Coordinator of Equity and Compliance presented to the Alaska Association of Anthropologists on harassment in the workplace. Director/ Title IX Coordinator, faculty and student presented at the Association of American Colleges & Universities Diversity Conference on Transforming the Academy Through Healing Centered Engagement (through an Indigenous lens).
Challenges	COVID-19: Although staff have done a great job navigating remote work during the pandemic, there are challenges outside of the University’s control. It has been difficult to get responses from individuals, most specifically from more remote locations. Also, there is limited internet infrastructure around Fairbanks, and rural areas of Alaska.

	New Federal Rules: The large amount of change needed to be in compliance with the new rules has taken away from casework, which has impacts long after implementation work is done. Online Training: Due to the vendor's training design there is a large amount of individuals experiencing technical challenges with the employee Title IX training. That created delays in completion and additional effort by HR and E&C staff addressing these challenges. Therefore, the deadline for employees to complete training was extended to October 31, 2020. Alternate forms of training have been offered at UAF to mitigate technical issues and the typical internet accessibility challenges. Staffing challenges: As we continue to see staffing challenges in the other Equity and Compliance Offices, it impacts UAF Equity and Compliance workloads.
Successes	UAF Equity and Compliance process mapped the new Title IX internal office process. This helped significantly with identifying and addressing needs and gaps. The next step is to incorporate other UAF departmental actions (e.g.; CSRR, HR, ResLife) for handling or adjudicating reports. Several new collaborations have started, of which are mentioned above; inclusive excellence strategic planning for systemic change, addressing volunteer training, grant proposals, and becoming a member of the Fairbanks Prevention Coalition.
