

Submission Checklist:

- A description of the proposed research on bird species. (See protocol document).
- A description of how the research is related to the management of bird species.
- A detailed budget statement, including funds committed from other sources.
- Two letters of reference describing the qualifications and suitability of the applicant to complete the proposed research.
- Graduate students must submit transcripts of undergraduate and graduate work completed to date of the project.
- A letter from an appropriate qualified supervisor acknowledging responsibility for supervision of the research.
- Completed application form.