

Campus Profile: Interior-Aleutians

The Interior-Aleutians Campus (I-AC) serves Alaska's Interior region, an area larger than France, and extends its service area to the Aleutians, a total area of about 200,000 square miles. With the largest land base of any rural campus, the area served by I-AC includes eleven separate school districts; several state government service areas; and three regional Native corporations. This campus is an Alaska Native Serving Institution that develops culturally relevant and place-based programs and serves a culturally and linguistically diverse Alaska Native population through its six rural education centers in Fort Yukon, Galena, McGrath, Tok, Unalaska and Nenana.

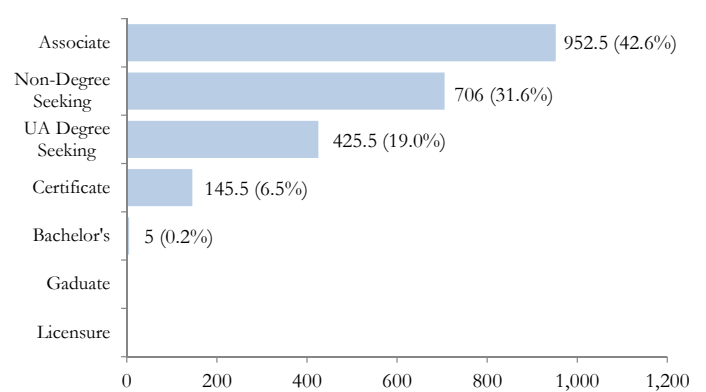

Student Profile, Fall 2011

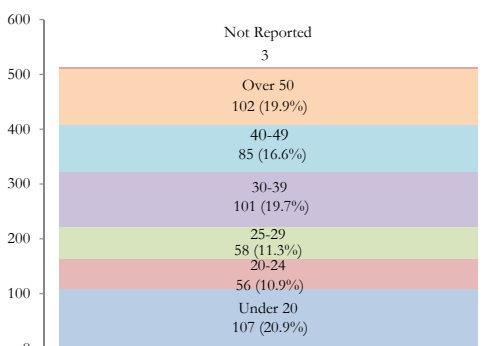

SCH by Course Level

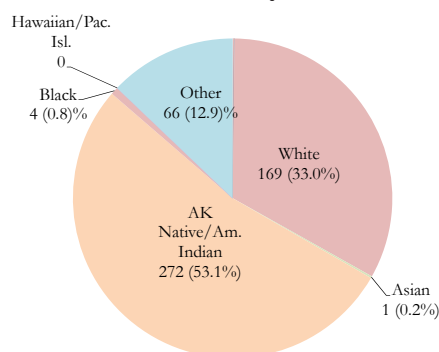

SCH by Degree-Seeking Status

Headcount by Age

Headcount by Race*

- The Interior-Aleutians campus enrolled 512 students for credit in fall 2011.
- Fifty-one degrees, certificates and credentials were awarded by the Interior-Aleutians campus in FY12, 24.4 percent more than the number awarded in FY04.
- 80.4 percent of FY12 degrees and credentials awarded by Interior-Aleutians were in programs qualifying recipients to work in High Demand Job Area careers.
- In fall 2011, Alaska Native/American Indian students accounted for more than half of the student body, the third highest proportion of all UA campuses.
- More than one-half of enrolled students were older than 30 in fall 2011, with an average age of 35.
- Students from Alaska accounted for 98.2 percent of enrollment, out-of-state students for 1.6 percent, and international students the remainder.

* Headcount by race is unduplicated. "Hawaii Native/Pacific Islander" was recorded as "Asian" prior to Fall 2009.

UA Scholars include any recipient who takes at least one course from the campus/MAU.

Source: Data Supplied by MAUs via UA Information Systems: Banner SI Closing Extracts FY03-FY12. Compiled by UA Institutional Research and Analysis in conjunction with campus.

Headcounts are unduplicated at the reporting level.