

Word Choice Activity

1. Circle ONE word in each box that best describes you. Do not think too long or hard about your response - go with your first instinct.
2. To tabulate your score add the number of responses in the row and enter in the corresponding letter box at the right of the table. Example: if you circled "receptive - intelligent - logical" you would have a score of one (1) in A and two (2) in C.
3. Then add the columns for the total score in each letter box

Tips for Communicating Using True Colors

Communicating with Blues:

Blues often will weave what they have so say into a relationship endeavor. People, relationships and fostering a healthy and supportive experience is important to them.

- * Acknowledge them
- * Show appreciation
- * Include them
- * Have patience
- * Request help, don't "bark" orders

Communicating with Oranges:

Oranges want to share their opinion the minute it hits their mind. They are interested in "doing" and "taking action".

- * Use "sound bites"
- * Move with them while they "multi-task"
- * Appreciate their "flair"
- * Provide them with options and flexibility
- * Lighten up - don't be so serious

Communicating with Greens:

During communication, their attention is focused on the matter at hand, not on the relationship. They communicate for the purpose of gaining and sharing information.

- * Give them time to ponder
- * Skip the small talk - get down to business
- * Avoid redundancy
- * Give your "big picture" first, then fill in details later
- * Be brief and "check for understanding"
- * Don't misinterpret their need for information as interrogation

Communicating with Golds:

Golds are generally respectful and responsible. They listen for details so they know what their part is. Before responding, they will size up the situation.

- * Be prepared, give details
- * Stay on target, be consistent
- * Show respect
- * Don't interrupt
- * Give recognition for their contributions
