4. Public and Guest Comments

a. Mary Gower - Title IX Update

Working on deadlines in the VRA and upcoming submission.

Climate Survey - Will hold a survey again this year. Extending survey cohort and using small incentives to participate. Important for students to participate if they are able.

Working on student training developed specifically for UA students, and will discontinue using EverFi.

5. Ongoing Business

a. Legislative Conference Planning

i. Speakers - Glenn Wright, Jesse Kiehl, Anc delegation, Tammie Wilson, Juneau interns, AVC Baker, Regent Sweet, Chancellor Caulfield

ii. Sessions - Possibly Green Dot, but requests for more interaction and breakout sessions, mingle time with speakers; Coalition meeting;

iii. What can you do now?

1. Contact your local legislators

b. Student Regent/Student Commissioner Elections - BOR Website

i. UAS - Started advertising around campus, election duties are assigned to VP, haven't gotten much interest from students yet

ii. UAA - held the election as part of their regular elections and have a student nominated for each the regent and commissioner positions

- iii. UAF - Included as part of regular elections, which will conclude on Thursday and have one student nominated for student regent
- iv. Mat-Su and Sitka requested the information again

6. New Business

a. Title IX

i. Training Completion

- 1. UAF - 67%
- 2. UAA - 68%
- 3. UAS - 72%
- 4. Priority registration hold used to incentivize students to complete but not create a barrier to registering; priority hold is now over and all students, regardless of whether they have completed training, can now register at all campuses.

ii. Changes to Title IX rules - One page fact sheet

- 1. Feedback Form - Open till Dec. 31
- 2. Proposed resolution \(Update 12/3\)

Audrey moved to approve the resolution; seconded.

Vote: 6-0

Motion passed unanimously

b. Student Compensation Update

Nick reported the BOR acknowledged they are working on staff, faculty and executive compensation and will focus on student employee compensation in FY20. Nick suggested working on a resolution in the spring.

7. Roundtable

Audrey noted UAF has a committee working on an extended leave policy for students.

8.

9. Adjourn

Audrey moved to adjourn, seconded. The meeting adjourned at 4:18 p.m.
