1.1 Recognition

The University recognizes the Fairbanks Fire Fighters Union, Local 1324, IAFF, AFL-CIO, as the exclusive bargaining representative for all full-time uniformed personnel employed at the UAF Fire Department, to include fire prevention personnel. The Fire Chief, Deputy Fire Chief, student firefighters, supervisory personnel and confidential personnel are excluded from the bargaining unit.

1.2 Effective Date

This Agreement is made and entered on July 1, 2023, by and between the University of Alaska (“University”) and the Fairbanks Firefighters Union, Local 1324, IAFF, AFL-CIO (“Union”).

1.3 Duration and Negotiation Procedure

This Agreement shall be effective as of July 1, 2023, and shall remain in full force and effect to and including June 30, 2026. No later than October 1, 2025, either party may serve written notice on the other of its desire to terminate, modify or amend this Agreement. Upon receipt of such notice, negotiations shall commence within sixty (60) calendar days, but in no event shall either party be required to commence negotiations prior to October 1, 2025.

The monetary terms of this Agreement are not effective until they have been appropriated by the legislature pursuant to AS 23.40.215.

1.4 Continuing Conditions

In the event that the termination date of this Agreement occurs during the course of negotiations for a successor Agreement, the terms and conditions of this Agreement shall be binding upon the parties until a successor Agreement is negotiated and ratified as applicable to State law. However, there shall be no salary increases after the expiration of this Agreement during the negotiation of a successor Agreement.

1.5 Reopening of Negotiations for Failure to Fund

In the event of an action by the University or the Legislature that results in a failure to appropriate money to fully fund any term of this agreement during any year of this contract the parties agree to immediately reopen the Agreement for negotiations of monetary terms.

1.6 Impasse at Collective Bargaining

If an impasse is reached in collective bargaining both parties agree to participate in mediation and binding arbitration according to applicable State law.

1.7 Zipper Clause

The parties acknowledge that during the negotiations which resulted in this Agreement each had the unlimited right and opportunity to make demands and proposals with respect to any subject or matter not removed by law from the area of collective bargaining, and that the understandings and agreements arrived at by the parties after the exercise of that right and opportunity are set forth in this Agreement. Therefore, the Union and the University, for the life of this Agreement, each voluntarily and unqualifiedly waives the right and each agrees that the other shall not be obligated to bargain collectively with respect to any subject or matter referred to or covered by this Agreement and with respect to any subject or matter not specifically referred to or covered by this Agreement even though such subject may not have been within the knowledge and contemplation of either or both of the parties at the time that they negotiated or signed this Agreement.

This Article in no way precludes the parties from using the Availability of Parties process in Article 1.10 to address items of concern which may arise through the normal course of implementation and interpretation of the Agreement.

1.8 Work Stoppage, Slowdown or Strike

The Union agrees that UAF Local 1324 bargaining unit members do not have the right to engage in any work stoppage, slowdown or strike. If any unauthorized or wildcat work stoppage, slowdown or strike occurs the Union will immediately notify UAF Local 1324 bargaining unit members engaged in the unauthorized activities to cease and desist and will publically declare that the work stoppage, slowdown or strike is illegal and unauthorized. Any UAF Local 1324 bargaining unit member engaging in any strike shall be subject to immediate dismissal by the University without right to utilize the grievance procedure of this Agreement.

1.9 Savings Clause

The terms of this Agreement are subject to applicable law. If any term or provision of this Agreement is at any time during the life of this Agreement adjudged by a court or administrative body of competent jurisdiction to be in conflict with any law such term or provision shall become invalid and unenforceable, but such invalidity or unenforceability shall not impair or affect any other term or provision of this Agreement.

1.10 Availability of Parties

The Union and the University agree to meet from time to time, at the request of either party at the mutual convenience of both, concerning this Agreement, its administration, and interpretation.

1.11 Non-Discrimination

Neither the University nor the Union shall discriminate on the basis of Fairbanks Fire Fighters Union, Local 1324, IAFF, AFL-CIO related activity.

With the exception of the obligation to refrain from discrimination based on union-related activities, the University's obligation to refrain from illegal acts under federal and state laws, Regents' Policy, University Regulation, and any other policy or procedure prohibiting discrimination or sexual harassment are not obligations under this collective bargaining agreement and are not subject to the grievance procedure.

1.12 University Policy and Regulation

Unless superseded by a specific provision of this Agreement, the Board of Regents' Policy and University Regulations, as amended from time to time, shall apply to all UAF Local 1324 bargaining unit members without any obligation to bargain over such changes.

1.13 Negotiations

One UAF Local 1324 bargaining unit member negotiator for the Union, when attending negotiation sessions on duty, shall not be included in minimum staffing and shall be relieved of duty for up to ten (10) negotiation sessions.

At the sole discretion of the Fire Chief a total of two (2) UAF Local 1324 bargaining unit member negotiators may be permitted to attend and participate in negotiations during their normal workday without loss of compensation and without interruption, except for emergency response. If this permission is not granted the parties will endeavor to schedule negotiations sessions on UAF Local 1324 bargaining unit member negotiators' days off, or UAF Local 1324 bargaining unit members may use Union business leave. This provision is contingent on the availability of an annual leave slot.

In the event that a claim or claims are made by a person or persons against any employee for actions done while in the scope of employment covered by the terms of this Agreement, the claim shall be defended by the University and any liability which is incurred by an employee covered by this Agreement as a result of the claim or claims shall be paid by the University. No indemnity shall occur for actions outside the scope of employment. Any claim or claims, or liability resulting there from, shall not be paid by the University if the claim or claims are based upon acts or omissions of any employee resulting from recklessness, gross negligence or intentional misconduct. The University reserves the exclusive right to retain and choose counsel for UAF Local 1324 bargaining unit members if the University is indemnifying those UAF Local 1324 bargaining unit members' actions.

Article 2 Management Rights

Except as expressly modified or restricted by a specific provision of this Agreement all statutory and inherent managerial rights, prerogatives, and functions are retained and vested exclusively in the University.

The University's failure to exercise any right, prerogative, or function hereby reserved to it, or the University's exercise of any such right, prerogative, or function in a particular way, shall not be considered a waiver of the University's right to exercise such right, prerogative, or function or preclude it from exercising the same in some other way not in conflict with the express provisions of this Agreement.

- a. the specific term(s) of this Agreement, Board of Regents' Policy or University Regulation alleged to have been violated, misinterpreted, or misapplied;

If the Union is not satisfied with the finding of the vice chancellor, or their designee, and intends to advance the grievance to binding arbitration, it will notify the Labor and Employee Relations office within ten (10) days of the grievant's receipt of the finding or the date the finding was due. The parties may mutually agree on an arbitrator. If the parties do not agree on an arbitrator, the parties shall contact the Federal Mediation and Conciliation Service to request a panel of arbitrators be provided. Within ten (10) working days after receipt of the panel of arbitrators, Labor and Employee Relations and the Union will meet and select an arbitrator by alternately striking names from the panel of arbitrators until one name remains. The first strike shall be decided by a flip of a coin. The arbitrator remaining on the list shall be accepted as the arbitrator of the grievance.

b. Arbitration Issues

Issues not specifically identified in writing in the Step 2 grievance filing or response shall not be submitted to the arbitrator for decision. The parties may mutually agree to waive this provision, but neither party shall be obligated to do so.

c. Pre-Arbitration Communication

At least ten (10) days prior to an arbitration hearing, the parties shall provide each other tentative witness lists, statements of the issues, and copies of documentary evidence expected to be introduced in the hearing. In the interest of expediting the arbitration process, the parties shall attempt to stipulate to issues, facts, and evidence to be presented in arbitration.

d. Arbitration Hearing and Costs

The arbitrator shall schedule and conduct the hearing in accordance with the Voluntary Rules of the American Arbitration Association. Each party shall be responsible for the costs of presenting its case. With the exception of fees charged for postponement, unilateral withdrawal, or cancellation, which shall be borne by the party initiating such action, the fees and expenses of the arbitrator shall be allocated by the arbitrator as follows:

1. Assign the arbitrator's fees and expenses to the losing party.
2. If the arbitrator determines that neither party is the losing party, then the arbitrator shall assign the arbitrator's fees and expenses proportionally to the parties as judged to be equitable.

e. Authority of the Arbitrator

The arbitrator shall have no authority to add to, subtract from, modify, or amend the terms of the Agreement. The arbitrator shall confine the decision solely to the application or interpretation of the express terms of the Agreement. The decision of the arbitrator shall be final and binding on both parties to the extent permitted by provisions of this Agreement and applicable law.

f. Retroactivity

a. Failure to Respond

If at any step in Grievance Resolution Process the University fails to respond within the time period prescribed the Union may advance the grievance to the next step. A Union representative shall have the right to be present, either as an advocate for the grievant or as an observer, in all meetings that occur as part of the grievance procedure. The representative's role shall be decided by the grievant.

c. Extension of Timelines

By mutual agreement, the parties may extend the grievance filing and response timelines set forth in Article 3.3. Such agreements shall be confirmed in writing by the party requesting the extension.

d. Representation and Advice of Counsel

The Union and the University may be advised or represented by counsel of their choice during any stage of grievance proceedings. Advice or representation by counsel at any level shall not be the basis for disqualifying such counsel at any other stage. Any conflict of interest which might be raised upon the basis of such advice or representation is expressly waived with respect to all other stages of the process.

e. Non-Retribution

The parties agree that there shall be no retribution or reprisal against a UAF Local 1324 bargaining unit member for exercising their rights under this procedure.

3.3.6 Grievances Filed by the University

The University may file a grievance against the Union within thirty (30) days after the event giving rise to the grievance occurred or within thirty (30) days after the University became aware or reasonably should have been aware of the event giving rise to the grievance, whichever is later. The grievance shall be filed by the University's Chief Human Resources Officer to the president of the Union. If the grievance is not resolved within thirty (30) days from the date of filing, the University may advance the grievance to arbitration pursuant to Article 3.3.1 through 3.3.6.

There shall be no University contribution for employees who choose to opt-out of the UA Choice plan.

4.1.1 UA Choice

The current UA Choice Plan shall be the health plan available to covered employees. The UA Choice Plan is a defined contribution plan with multiple coverage options, prospective employee charges, and a plan year based on a fiscal year. The defined contribution nature of the UA Choice Plan shall be preserved.

The University, in good faith, will annually establish an employee charge for each coverage option offered under the UA Choice Plan. Option charges shall be the same for all University employees selecting a coverage option. In establishing the charges the University shall consider prior year under and over collections related to the UA Choice Plan, consult with its benefits consultant and claims administrator, and will meet and confer with the Joint Health Care Committee.  - iv. be detrimental to the financial interests of the University as determined by the President.
- b. The Joint Health Care Committee will be comprised of up to three (3) representatives selected by other represented employee groups of up to two (2) representatives selected by Staff Alliance, and up to three (3) representatives selected by the University. A quorum for meetings shall require more than fifty percent (50%) of committee members.
- c. The University Benefits and Compensation Director shall be an ex officio member of the committee. The committee shall be advisory in nature and will forward its recommendations in writing to the University's Chief Human Resources Officer (CHRO) with copies to each committee member.
- d. The committee will, to the extent possible, reach consensus on recommended actions. In the event consensus is not possible the committee shall conduct a formal vote on any official recommendations regarding changes in health benefits with a simple majority needed to pass any recommendation.
- e. The committee shall be chaired by a member of the committee who is a University employee and selected by a majority vote of the committee. The chair shall be a full voting member of the committee.
- f. Normally, the University will accept committee recommendations that are consistent with the parameters described above and will proceed accordingly to implement the recommended changes. However, in exceptional circumstances, the CHRO may determine that the best interests of the University and the health care plan would not be served in accepting the recommendation. In those cases where the CHRO does not accept the committee's recommendation, the CHRO shall set forth in writing the reasons for that determination. The decision of the CHRO shall be rendered in writing within twenty (20) business days of the receipt of the committee's recommendations. The CHRO's decision is final and binding and not subject to further review. Copies of the committee's recommendations and the CHRO's decision shall be posted on the University of Alaska HR Benefits website.
- g. All expenses of serving on the committee and participating in committee activities shall be the responsibility of each party participating on the committee. The University will provide release time from work for one UAF Local 1324 bargaining unit member to attend scheduled JHCC meetings.

- h. Members of the health care committee will be trained on health care topics including employee-management committee processes, health benefits reporting and accounting, HIPAA compliance and other topics relevant to the role of the committee.
- i. The parties will meet and confer in good faith regarding health, pharmacy and wellness data that would be useful to the committee, as well as the timing and frequency of University provided reports. The University will facilitate information exchange between the plan's health care vendors and the Joint Health Care Committee to ensure timely receipt of information for committee use.

4.2 Life Insurance, Long Term Disability, and Accidental Death and Dismemberment

The University shall provide life insurance, long-term disability, and accidental death and dismemberment coverage on the same basis as provided to UAF Local 1324 bargaining unit members by the University Plan in place on the date of this Agreement unless said benefit is improved by the University at which point the bargaining unit members will receive the enhancement.

5.5 Shift Trades

Shift trades allow fire suppression personnel to substitute for one another on tours of duty or parts thereof. Shift trades allow UAF Local 1324 bargaining unit members to absent themselves from work and attend to personal matters. Trading of time is done voluntarily by UAF Local 1324 bargaining unit members for their own convenience. It does not occur at the direction of the University and any disputes concerning shift trades are not subject to the grievance process. All shift trades need to be approved in advance. Shift trades may be made but will not result in more than ninety-six (96) consecutive hours worked without a twenty-four (24)-hour break in between.

The University shall not be required to pay any additional wages to UAF Local 1324 bargaining unit member(s) agreeing to shift trades. Resolution of shift trade payback between UAF Local 1324 bargaining unit members are determined by mutual agreement of the bargaining unit members and any disputes are not subject to the grievance process.

5.6 Platoon Changes Initiated by UAF Local 1324 Bargaining Unit Members

UAF Local 1324 bargaining unit members of equal classification and qualification may mutually agree to exchange platoons.

- a. Any change of platoon requested by UAF Local 1324 bargaining unit members will be subject to approval by the Fire Chief. Changes may be denied for good reason(s).
- b. The Department will not be responsible for preserving leave or paying any overtime or callback time that may result from trading of platoons.

5.7 Platoon Changes Initiated by the Department

In the case of platoon changes initiated by the Department, the Fire Chief will be responsible for guaranteeing leaves already approved.

When a UAF Local 1324 bargaining unit member is assigned to begin work on a new shift forty-eight (48) hours or more from the last regular previously assigned shift, prorated straight time will be paid to make up for work missed.

When the Fire Chief wants to initiate a platoon change, the Fire Chief, the bargaining unit member and the Union will meet to determine a mutually agreeable effective date that will avoid any loss of pay for the bargaining unit member.

In the absence of extenuating circumstances, UAF Local 1324 bargaining unit members who are notified of platoon changes initiated by the Department will be given at least nine (9) calendar days (including weekends and holidays) before alteration of the schedule.

5.8 Callback Overtime Assignment Procedures

a. Callback Overtime

- i. Callback overtime applies when the University determines additional personnel are needed for staffing apparatus or stations. Callback overtime other than emergency recall will be offered on a rotating basis according to the last overtime worked such that the qualified bargaining unit member with the oldest date of overtime last worked will be contacted first.
- ii. Callback overtime shall be assigned rank-for-rank: the rank of the bargaining unit member that is vacant is the rank that shall be called. If the vacancy cannot be filled with a bargaining unit member of like rank, the next rank will be called.
 1. When there are two vacancies of different ranks (i.e. one (1) fire captain and one (1) battalion chief), the later vacancy to occur will determine the rank to be filled with callback overtime.
- iii. A bargaining unit member is considered excused from accepting overtime if they a) are scheduled to be on duty; b) are already committed to a shift trade; c) are committed to a compensable fire department related activity; d) are approved for sick or family medical leave; or e) if accepted, would result in more than forty-eight (48) consecutive hours.
- iv. No bargaining unit member may work overtime on their regularly scheduled shift, regardless of circumstance.

b. Extra Hours and Non-Callback Overtime

- i. Extra hours and non-callback overtime applies to special projects, meetings, training, or other assignments.
- ii. All extra hours and non-callback overtime must be approved in advance by the Fire Chief. Unauthorized extra hours or overtime is prohibited.
- iii. Extra hours and non-callback overtime will be rank-appropriate. In circumstances when all ranks are equally appropriate, either rank may fill the assignment. The Fire Chief or designee may assign extra-hours and non-callback overtime to specific bargaining unit members based on particular certifications, skills, experience, or other unique factors.
 1. Examples of fire captain rank-appropriate assignment include, but are not limited to, staffing a fire company to stand by at a fireworks event; staffing a fire company to stand by at a confined space entry.

2. Examples of battalion chief rank-appropriate assignment include, but are not limited to, serving as division supervisor at a wildfire.
 3. Examples of assignments for which any rank may be appropriate include, but are not limited to, teaching a class; representing the department at a public event; apparatus inspection trip.
- c. Overtime Calling and Record Keeping
- i. Battalion chiefs (or acting battalion chiefs, as appropriate) will contact UAF Local 1324 bargaining unit members to fill overtime opportunities.
 - ii. Battalion chiefs (including acting battalion chiefs) will maintain records of all overtime called including the reason for the overtime, the date each UAF Local 1324 bargaining unit member was called and whether the callback was refused, accepted, excused (including on duty), or not contacted. These records will be accessible for viewing by the Fire Chief, administrative staff, and bargaining unit members.
 - iii. Overtime callback procedures will be kept internally and approved by both the Fire Chief and the Union, as amended from time to time.

5.9 Duties and Conditions of Employment

The duties covered by this Agreement of the UAF Local 1324 bargaining unit members of the Fire Department shall include the prevention and suppression of fire, public education, emergency medical services, rescue services, mitigation of hazardous materials incidents and other activities commonly performed by Fire Services.
- b. The University agrees that it will not use Local 1324 bargaining unit members of other fire departments, agencies or individuals not otherwise referred to in this Agreement and from outside this bargaining unit to perform any covered duties because of a lack of personnel or the unavailability of a UAF Local 1324 bargaining unit member. This provision does not preclude the use of mutual aid. This shall not preclude the university from using qualified Local 1324 bargaining unit members from filling temporary, unforeseen short-term needs as mutually agreed upon between the University and the bargaining unit.
- c. UAF Local 1324 bargaining unit members will not be required to perform any law enforcement duties or duties in connection with riot control or crowd dispersal. This provision does not restrict the performance of code enforcement duties.
- d. Members of the Fire and Life Safety Division and other bargaining unit members designated by the Fire Chief may enforce the provisions of the Fire Code as adopted by the University, or other applicable Alaska Statute and Regulations relating to fire investigation.

5.10 Revocation of Driver's License

If a Battalion Chief position is vacant for thirty (30) or more days, a Captain will be assigned to act up to fill that position. Acting compensation will be ten percent (10%) above the bargaining unit member's current rate of pay.

8.8 Suspension

Suspension without pay may be used in circumstances which the Fire Chief believes that, by its use, the UAF Local 1324 bargaining unit member will correct the job related behavior or performance and where discharge appears unwarranted or as a last attempt to correct behavior prior to termination of employment.

Article 11

Physical Examinations and Fitness for Duty

11.1 Physical Examinations

The parties recognize that the demands of fire suppression work make it beneficial for UAF Local 1324 bargaining unit members to receive an annual physical examination by a medical provider. All UAF Local 1324 bargaining unit members shall receive an annual physical by a medical provider identified by the University. The cost of this examination will be covered by the University. The UAF Local 1324 bargaining unit member shall be permitted to use duty time for the scheduled physical examination. The physical shall include all tests and examinations specified by National Fire Protection 1582 Standard on Comprehensive Occupational Medical Program for Fire Departments, 2018 edition, as amended from time to time and any other tests as required by the University. The annual physical is a condition of continued employment. If a UAF Local 1324 bargaining unit member delays, or does not follow through on appointments, could result in discipline as outlined in Article 8.

Subsequent treatment for non-work related conditions shall be subject to the terms of the UAF Local 1324 bargaining unit member's health care plan.

11.2 Exit Physical

No later than two (2) weeks prior to a UAF Local 1324 bargaining unit member's termination, the UAF Local 1324 bargaining unit member will have completed an exit physical unless that UAF Local 1324 bargaining unit member has had their annual physical within six (6) months of separation. 11.4 Medical Examination Dispute Resolution

If the Fire Chief, with the concurrence of the VCAS, questions the physical or mental ability of a UAF Local 1324 bargaining unit member to perform their normal work assignment, an examination(s) may be ordered by the University to be conducted by a medical provider chosen by the University. If such examination(s) demonstrates in the opinion of the examining medical provider that the UAF Local 1324 bargaining unit member is physically or mentally incapable of performing their normal work assignment the UAF Local 1324 bargaining unit member shall be allowed to seek a second opinion from a medical provider of their choice.

If the results of these two (2) examinations are inconsistent, a third opinion shall be solicited from a medical provider mutually agreeable to the University and the UAF Local 1324 bargaining unit member. The results of the third examination shall be final and binding.

11.5 Light Duty

If a UAF Local 1324 bargaining unit member becomes injured on the job, cannot perform normal duties, and has a medical provider's evaluation releasing the UAF Local 1324 bargaining unit member for light duty, the University will consider the UAF Local 1324 bargaining unit member for a light duty assignment according to its established procedures.

If a UAF Local 1324 bargaining unit member becomes injured as a result of non-work related activities, cannot perform normal duties, and has a medical provider's evaluation releasing the UAF Local 1324 bargaining unit member for light duty, the Fire Chief may, in their sole discretion, consider the UAF Local 1324 bargaining unit member for a light duty assignment. The University's failure to make light duty available in this situation is not grievable.

11.6 Inability to Perform Work Assignment

If a UAF Local 1324 bargaining unit member's physical or mental condition permanently or indefinitely prevents them from performing their normal work assignments, the University will make reasonable efforts to assist the UAF Local 1324 bargaining unit member in obtaining another University position for which they are qualified. If the UAF Local 1324 bargaining unit member is not successful in being selected for an existing and funded vacancy, the UAF Local 1324 bargaining unit member will be terminated.

Article 12 Layoff

12.1 Layoff

The University may elect to discontinue an existing employment relationship through layoff. Layoff does not reflect discredit on a UAF Local 1324 bargaining unit member's performance.

Layoff may be used when there exists within the Fire Department either:

- a. a lack of or reduction in available work;
- b. a lack of sufficient available funds;
- c. a good faith reorganization; or
- d. another reason, not reflecting discredit upon the affected UAF Local 1324 bargaining unit member(s), which has been approved in the particular circumstances by the UAF chancellor; or

12.2 Notice of Layoff

12.3 Pay in Lieu of Notice

Four (4) weeks pay may be given to the employee in lieu of four (4) weeks notice, but only with the prior approval of the UAF chancellor.

In the event pay in lieu of notice is approved, the effective date of the layoff is the last day the UAF Local 1324 bargaining unit member is actually at work.

12.4 Selection for Layoffs

- c. employment status, e.g. temporary, probationary or regular, with preference being given to the regular over the others, and preference being given to probationary over temporary;
