Dear UAF Community,

I'm writing to share a brief update on the transition planning underway for UAF's next chancellor.

We've received a strong response to the call for nominations and letters of interest for the interim chancellor role. The submissions reflect a wide range of perspectives and experiences. I am currently reviewing those submissions and vetting candidates in consultation with internal stakeholders and leadership.

I intend to announce UAF's interim chancellor no later than July 18. At that time, I also plan to share an update on the timeline and approach for the search for a permanent chancellor.

Thank you for your continued engagement and dedication to UAF and the UA System.

Sincerely,
