

December 22, 2017

Dear UA community,

As we head into the holiday break, I want to extend my best wishes to you for the holiday season and the coming New Year. I hope that you will take time away from your work to embrace those things in life that are most meaningful to you and that you enjoy a wonderful holiday with friends and family, full of joy and happiness.

Please do take time to remember in your prayers and remembrances those who cannot celebrate with their families this season - our police, firefighters, first responders, and military members.

So, until we ring in 2017 and return to campus, may the spirit of the season fill your hearts and homes with happiness, and may you find many reasons for joy and fulfillment in the New Year.

Happy holidays,
Jim Johnsen