Should Buyer elect to carry out this Agreement despite any unrepaired damage, Seller shall not be liable to restore the Property or pay damages to Buyer, nor shall Buyer be entitled to the proceeds of any insurance policies carried by or for Seller's benefit.

10. INDEMNITY. Buyer agrees that Buyer shall indemnify, defend and hold the Seller, its Board of Regents, officers, employees, agents, and representatives harmless from and against any and all loss, expense, damage, claim, demand, judgment, fee, charge, lien, liability, action, cause of action or proceedings of any kind whatsoever, whether arising on account of damage to or loss of property, or personal injury, emotional distress or death arising directly or indirectly in connection with Buyer's purchase, use, presence on, or ownership of the Property, whether the same arises before or after the closing of the Property. This indemnification does not apply to instances where the injury is caused by the Seller's gross or sole negligence or intentional misconduct. In the event any part of this indemnification clause is determined to be contrary to law or public policy, Buyer agrees to provide the Seller with the maximum indemnification allowed by law.

11. HAZARDOUS MATERIAL AND FUEL.

a. As used in this Agreement, the term "Hazardous Material" means any hazardous or toxic substance, material, or waste that is or becomes regulated by any local governmental authority, the State of Alaska, or the United States. Hazardous Material also includes petroleum products and petroleum by-products.

b. Buyer agrees Buyer, its employees, agents, representatives, contractors, subcontractors or invitees, may not cause or permit any Hazardous Material to be brought upon, kept, used, or permitted in or about the Property by Buyer, prior to Buyer's ownership, possession or control of the Property. If (i.) Buyer, its employees, agents, representatives, contractors, subcontractors or invitees, breach these obligations, or (ii.) the presence or release of Hazardous Material on the Property caused or negligently permitted by Buyer, its employees, agents, representatives, contractors, subcontractors, or invitees, results in injury, illness, or contamination of the Property, or (iii.) contamination of the Property by Hazardous Material otherwise occurs by the acts of Buyer, its employees, agents, representatives, contractors, subcontractors or invitees, then Buyer shall indemnify, defend, and hold Seller, its Board of Regents, officers, employees, agents and representatives harmless from any and all claims, judgments, damages, penalties, fees, costs, liabilities, or losses (including, without limitation, diminution in value of the Property, damages for the loss or restriction of usable space or of any amenity of the Property, damages arising from any adverse impact on marketing of space, and sums paid in settlement of claims, attorney fees, consultant fees, and expert fees) which arise prior to or after the closing of this sale as a result of such contamination. This indemnification of Seller by Buyer includes, without limitation, costs incurred in connection with defense, enforcement, or substantiation of any provisions of this Agreement, any investigation of site conditions or any clean-up, remedial, removal, or restoration work required by any federal, state, or local government agency or political subdivision because of Hazardous Material present in the soil or groundwater on or under the Property. Additionally, if the presence of any Hazardous Material on the Property caused or negligently permitted by Buyer results in any contamination of the Property, Buyer shall promptly take all actions at its sole expense as are necessary to return the Property to the condition existing prior to the introduction of any such Hazardous Material to the Property. Seller's approval of such remedial actions shall first be obtained, but approval shall not be unreasonably withheld so long as such actions would not potentially have any material adverse long-term or short-term effect on the Property.

- c. The obligations arising under this Section shall survive all closings.
- d. Nothing in this Section is intended to relieve Buyer, its employees, agents, representatives, contractors, subcontractors or invitees from any responsibility imposed by any government agency dealing with Hazardous Materials.

12. WARRANTIES. Buyer acknowledges that Buyer has inspected the Property. Buyer further acknowledges that Seller makes no warranties, either express or implied, nor assumes any liability whatsoever, regarding the social, economic, or environmental aspects of the Property, to include, without limitation, the soil conditions, water drainage, suitability of the Property for onsite wastewater disposal, and natural or artificial hazards which may or may not exist on the Property.

Buyer further acknowledges that Seller is not making and specifically disclaims any warranties or representations of any kind or character, express or implied, with respect to the Property, including, but not limited to, warranties or representations as to matters of title, zoning, tax consequences, physical conditions, availability of access, ingress or egress, operating history or projections, valuation, governmental approvals, governmental regulations or any other matter or thing relating to or affecting the Property including, without limitation:

- a. The value, condition, merchantability, marketability, profitability, suitability or fitness for a particular use or purpose of the Property;
- b. The manner or quality of the construction or materials incorporated into any of the Property; and
- c. The manner, quality, state of repair or lack of repair of the Property.

Buyer agrees that with respect to the Property, Buyer has not relied upon and will not rely upon, either directly or indirectly, any representation or warranty of Seller or any agent of Seller. Buyer represents that Buyer has had the opportunity to consult with legal counsel or other consultants regarding this transaction and that Buyer is relying solely on its own expertise and that of Buyer's consultants, and that Buyer will conduct such inspections and investigations of the Property, including, but not limited to, the physical and environmental conditions thereof, and shall rely upon same, and upon closing, shall assume the risk that adverse matters, including, but not limited to, adverse physical and environmental conditions, may not have been revealed by Buyer's inspections and investigations. Buyer acknowledges and agrees that upon closing, Seller shall sell and convey to Buyer and Buyer shall accept the Property "as is where is," with all faults, including such faults that cannot be observed by a casual inspection and there are no oral agreements, warranties or representations (except as herein specifically provided), collateral to or affecting the Property by Seller, any agent of Seller or any third party acting for or on behalf of Seller. Seller is not liable or bound in any manner by any verbal or written statements, representations, or information pertaining to the Property furnished by any real estate broker, agent, employee, servant or other person. Moreover, Buyer's closing hereunder shall be deemed to constitute an express waiver of Buyer's or its successors and assigns right to sue Seller and of Buyer's right to cause Seller to be joined in an action brought under any federal, state or local law, rule, act or regulation which prohibits or regulates the use, handling, storage, transportation or disposal of a hazardous or toxic substance or which requires removal or remedial action with respect to such hazardous or toxic substance, specifically including but not limited to "CERCLA" and "SARA." The terms and conditions of this Section are a material inducement for Seller's entering into this Agreement and shall expressly survive the closing hereunder.

13. ASSIGNMENTS. This Agreement may not be assigned without the written approval of Seller, which may be withheld for any reason. Subject to receipt of such approval from Seller, this Agreement shall be binding on and shall inure to the benefit of the parties and their heirs, successors and assigns.

14. ENTIRE AGREEMENT. This Agreement, the _____ Disposal Plan (which is incorporated herein by reference) and any other documents referred to herein contain the entire agreement of the parties with respect to the subject matter hereof. Any changes, additions or deletions hereto must be made in writing and signed by both Seller and Buyer.

15. MISCELLANEOUS.

a. Buyer agrees to comply with the Declaration of Covenants, Conditions, and Restrictions of record, if any, affecting the Property.

b. Buyer and the Seller hereby acknowledge that the Property may have a physical structure on it. Nonetheless, Buyer and the Seller are fully aware and understand that the Property is not being offered for sale as residential real property with habitable improvements, Buyer and Seller agree that the Property currently contains no single or multi-family dwelling unit, and Buyer and Seller further agree that the provisions of Alaska Statute 34.70 et seq. relating to disclosures in residential real property transfers do not apply to this transfer. Buyer hereby unconditionally releases the Seller from and against any and all liability to Buyer, both known and unknown, present and future, for any damages to Buyer arising as a result of any structure which may be located on the Property and Buyer hereby assumes any and all risk that may arise from the presence of any structure on the Property. If it is ever determined that the Property contained a single or multi-family dwelling unit on the date of Closing, the Buyer and the Seller agree to execute a waiver pursuant to AS 34.70.110.

d. All sections and descriptive headings in this Agreement are inserted for convenience only, and shall not affect the construction or interpretation hereof.

e. Inapplicability or unenforceability of any provision of this Agreement or any instrument executed and delivered pursuant hereto shall not limit or impair the operation or validity of any other provisions of this Agreement or any such other instrument.

f. The waiver of any breach or default under any of the terms of this Agreement shall not be deemed to be nor shall the same constitute a waiver of any subsequent breach or default.

g. Both parties represent and warrant that they have the authority to enter into this Agreement.

h. This Agreement shall be construed and interpreted under the laws of the State of Alaska.

i. Time is of the essence in the performance of this Agreement.
